

Call to Order/Introduction: Olivia Goldman, Ashley Rayback, PTA Co-Presidents

Pledge: Olivia Goldman

Leadership thought: Malisa Whiting, Leadership VP - (Not In Attendance)

Teacher Update: Maren Clayton, Teacher VP. - Stem fair was a success, over 100 participants! All the kids loved the swag bags.

* Teachers appreciated the PTC dinner and asked for the soup recipes.

*Mrs. Hansen is doing well and getting the needed support, she has a great student teacher.

Principal Update: Principal Jill Franklin, Administrative VP-

*Appreciated the teacher's dinner. Be aware of the Stake Holders Survey. It is available for students and parents.

*In the school grades, Spring Creek was 3% away from receiving an "A" in WITA testing (ESL tests).

*She is excited for the Freedom Festival and appreciates the work of Audrey and the PTA.

Community Outreach Report: Kimmy Martinez- Afterschool Yoga openings are still available. There is also a free class held on Fridays mornings, 8:10-8:40.

*There is a Utah County Chess tournament.

*The UVU Art Center invited the theater program to come perform.

*After school showcase on March 28

*South Franklin Community Center- A great resource. Reading program and English classes

School Board Report: Jennifer Partridge (New representative)

*Excited to help however she can.

*School board discussing adding a bond for building and renovating.

Reports:

- Maturation- Grateful for the donations, it was a success.
-
- STEM Fair- Great participation, but unexpected. The budget was blown for this event because the number of participants was more than expected. Many late add-ins. Is there a way to know the numbers earlier?
-
- Parent/Teacher Conferences Dinner: Jenny Wright, Janay Thornton- Good feedback, many teachers wanting the recipes. Jenny and Janay would like to volunteer again next year.
-
- Book Fair: Angela Laughlin- It was a success, we made the needed minimum. Sara decorated beautifully. The raffle and crafts really helped bring people in. Next year they'd like to add e-wallet.

Upcoming Events/Volunteer Opportunities:

- Freedom Week: Audrey Vivian- moved the dates back to the 20th-22nd. On wed. They will make tricorn hats. There will be revolutionary reenactors, BYU colorguard and an essay contest.
-
- Staff Appreciation Week- March 25-29 Harry Potter theme.

Official PTA Business:

- Treasurer Report- $18000 - spending has been on Santa shoppe, stem fair, maturation, Last year box tops made - $259

If you have any questions or concerns, or would like to be more involved next year, please contact Ashley Rayback at 801-602-0600 (call or text) or Olivia Goldman 801-367-1409 (call or text) or springcreekpta@gmail.com.