

Classroom Rules

These small behavior posters are meant to be displayed for younger children, as well as second language learners. They target specific behaviors that allow students to begin a successful learning experience. The teacher can encourage the learning behavior by simply pointing to a sign when a certain behavior is desired. The teacher can also point out the students in the class who are exhibiting the behaviors.

- Julianna Gylseth

clipart and fonts are by the following:

Learn more about Intermuse and Kodaly certification: <http://intermuse.byu.edu/>

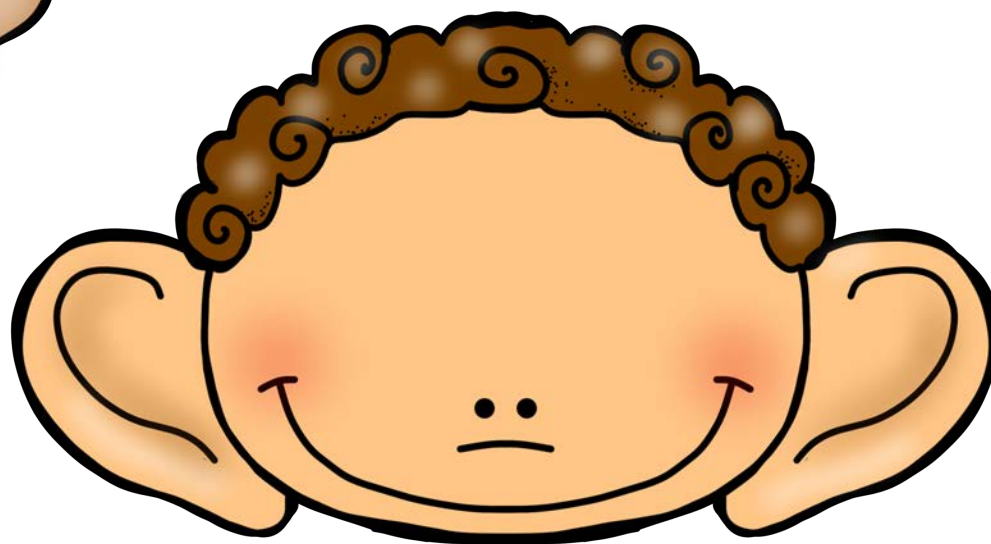

Criss Cross Applesauce

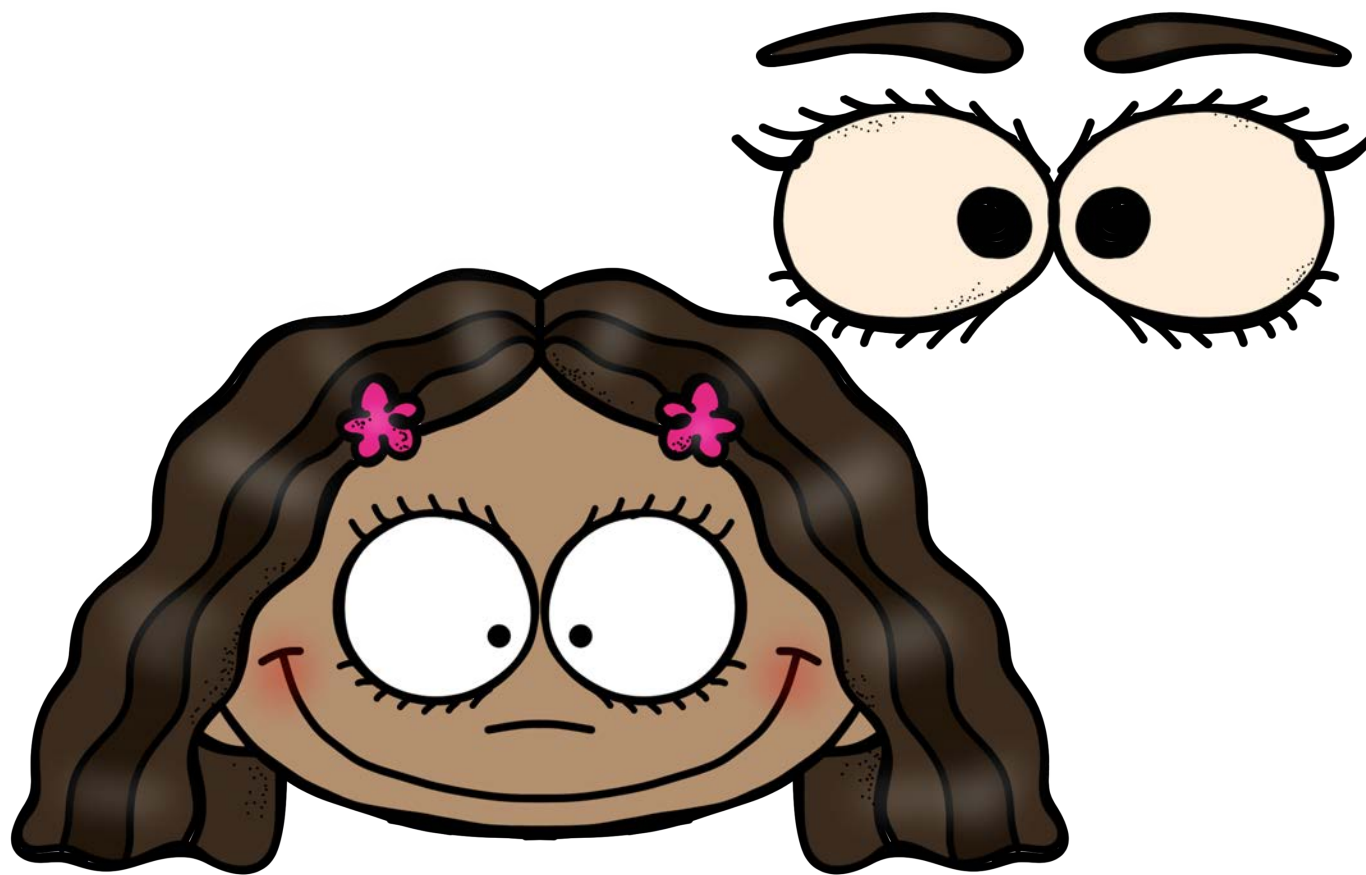

Voices Quiet

Hands in Lap

Listening Ears

Eyes on Me