- III. Officer and Commissioner Reports:

School Board Representative for SE Provo Jennifer Partridge

1. Joint city council meeting with school board on the updates made for new safe signage for school routes. School Community Council can submit for more ideas on safety this fall. There are new members in the city transportation department that are actively working to make our kids safer.
2. Next Tuesday: School Board meeting – they will be voting on a new location for Dixon Middle, please email ahead of time and come for public commenting. Making progress on location for Wasatch Elementary.
3. Planning on keeping old Dixon building for future purposes, perhaps historically restore it. Boundaries would not change at any new potential Dixon Middle locations.

Community Outreach Kimmy Martinez

4. Please share employment positions that are open for the After School program with family and friends. Programs details are ready to go, but more staff are needed to open the After School program.

President Jenny Wright

5. Presented on Box Tops – if you have any old cut Box Tops please bring them in so we can meet our goal of 50 Box Tops. Download the Box Tops app to scan digital Box Tops and receipts.
6. Amazon runs a charity program called Amazon Smile. PTA Utah Congress Spring Creek Elementary is our listing. Please use it when making Amazon purchases.
7. Please follow our PTA Instagram, looking for a volunteer to run it.
8. Spring Creek Spectacular funds all of our PTA activities for the year. All forms have been sent home. Donations are collected online. There are different prize tiers for donations collected by each child. If you earn $10, please fill out tee shirt form. There is a fun run, dance party, food trucks, color powder packet throwing at the actual event. Color packets are released throughout the event. All swag will be dispersed at Spectacular.
9. If you have not paid and signed up for PTA yet, we encourage you to do so. Please see Audrey Vivian or Jenny Wright for help with this.
10. For every book read your child will receive a ticket for a book raffle, each winner will receive a book for the child and for the library. At the end of the year all tickets are entered again and two winners will win a new bike.
